Reviews

Academic

[Duke] Strong humanities and science departments. Classes are small, up to 15 students. Round table format. Faculty very accessible and helpful. Work load each night for freshmen is about 2-3 hours, sophomores, 3-4 hours, juniors and seniors 4-6.

College Counseling

[Duke] College admissions discussions begin early in sophomore year with PSAT testing and the college fair. Junior year, students are encouraged to sit in on information sessions from visiting colleges, assigned college advisors, begin SAT testing and preparation, and draft lists of potential colleges to consider and visit. There are only a few formal meetings with college advisors in the spring of junior year, but lots of informal communication. More formal meetings Senior year.

Admissions Process

[Duke] The SSAT is important. Interview required. Dress relatively conservatively.

Extra-Curricular Activities

[Duke] Good choice of extracurriculars. Athletics get more attention on campus than the arts, but both are good.

Quality of School Life

[Duke] Days are very structured. The neighborhood is pretty safe. Housing is pretty good and steadily improving. Dining is not great. Not a very diverse student body.
